Violette Leblanc

Portrait

Violette Leblanc has developed a high level of expertise in research. In her practice, she delves into the strategic aspects of complex cases, and she advises her colleagues on cutting-edge issues. Her in-depth knowledge of consumer law as well as civil and business law makes her an invaluable asset in class action and shareholder litigation.

Violette, who has a law degree from the University of Montréal, joined our firm in 2008. Prior to that, she worked as a legal researcher with the Honourable J.J. Michel Robert, Chief Justice of Quebec, at the Quebec Court of Appeal.

Publications

MAY 1, 2012 | BENOIT LAPOINTE, SAMUEL LEPAGE, VIOLETTE LEBLANC
Le statut de plaignant de l'actionnaire non-inscrit aux livres de la société en matière de recours pour oppression

MARCH 12, 2012 | DANIEL BELLEAU, VIOLETTE LEBLANC
Concurrence : Mode d'emploi – Recours collectifs et complots en matière de fixation de prix

JANUARY 22, 2003 | VIOLETTE LEBLANC
L'économie de la bonne foi contractuelle

Contact Violette Leblanc

By email
vleblanc@belleaulapointe.com

By phone
514.987.6670

Profile of Violette Leblanc

Year of admission at the Barreau
2005

Training
LL.B., Université de Montréal, 2001

Recognition

1998 | Host fellowship (excellence), Faculty of Law, University of Montréal.

Mandates

Represented a consumer association in a class action against an international cartel attempting to fix the price of an electronic component.

Represented investors who were victims of a Ponzi scheme, in an authorized class action suit against accounting firms and securities custodians based on their extracontractual liability.

Represented a consumer association in two class actions concerning disclosure of annual fees by retailers under the Consumer Protection Act.